

State of Alaska Division of Motor Vehicles Standard Operating Procedures	SOP No. R-340	Page No. 1 of 1
	Effective April 7, 2006
Subject:	Supersedes R-340	Dated 12/15/00
WESTERN STATES PRORATE AGREEMENT	Approved
Statute: AS 28.05.021	Regulation:	Form No.

Effective January 1, 2000, the State of Alaska discontinued issuing registrations under the Western States Prorate Agreement.

For Commercial Motor Vehicle operators based outside of Alaska, they have two options in order to drive in Alaska:

- Dual Registration (R-345)
- Commercial Trip Permit (R-160)

If you pull up a record that has not been renewed since the Division stopped prorating vehicles and you need information on how to process the transaction, follow the procedures below:

ALASKA TITLE:

- Remove the state code in the prorate field.
- Establish a new registration month as if it were a new registration.
- Charge full fees.

NO ALASKA TITLE:

- Create a NEW record using the procedures in R-345 (Dual Registration).
- Collect full fees and establish a new registration month.
- Contact Contract Services to delete the prorate record.

Cross Reference:

R-160 Commercial Trip Permit

R-345 Dual Registration